

Permissions/Licenses

Administration of Nature and Forestry

Ministry of the Environment, Climate and Sustainable Development – Administration of Nature and Forestry –

Basis: Law of 21 April 1993 on the licensing of natural persons or legal persons under private law or public law, with the exception of the State, to carry out technical research and audit tasks in the environmental field.

Competence Area:

Natural Environment

- Environmental Impact Studies (EIS)
- Nature conservation approval procedures
- Biotope Mapping
- Mitigation and compensation measures
- Application for Examination of EIA Requirement
- FFH compatibility studies etc.